MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE PETITION FOR WRIT OF CERTIORARI TO THE HONORABLE
JOHN C. LANHAM, JUDGE, CIRCUIT COURT,
STATE OF HAWAII, his alternate or substitute.

TO THE HONORABLE CHIEF JUSTICE and ASSOCIATE JUSTICES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES:

Comes now ALFRED Y. K. AU, the petitioner herein, who respectfully submits:

1. That he was the prevailing party in Au v. Kelly, et al,
Civil No. 47984, in the First Circuit Court, State of Hawaii.

2. That judgment was entered for him, in the amount of $31,500.00 together with costs on July 29, 1977.
(Appendix A-3, A-4).

3. That the subsequent order (Appendix A-22) on October 25, 1977 for a new trial on the issue of damages only is not only a departure from the accepted and usual course of judicial proceedings, but more seriously, a denial of the Seventh Amendment, or the Constitutional guarantee of trial by jury.

4. That Petitioner's three attempted appellate efforts for relief, sought in the Supreme Court of the State of Hawaii have been frustrated by denials. (Appendix B).

WHEREFOR, Petitioner, having exhausted all available avenues for relief through other appellate processes, now seeks and prays that this Court grants the Motion for Leave to File Petition for Writ of Certiorari to the Honorable John C. Lanham, Judge, Circuit Court, State of Hawaii, his alternate or substitute. This Court represents the last resort Petitioner has, in his efforts to have the grave issues involving the Seventh Amendment and the legal enigma involving the writ of certiorari and the Supreme Court of the State of Hawaii, be heard and adjudicated.

PETITION FOR A WRIT OF CERTIORARI TO THE HONORABLE JOHN C. LANHAM, JUDGE,
CIRCUIT COURT, STATE OF HAWAII, his alternate or substitute.

ALFRED Y. K. AU, the petitioner herein, prays that a writ of certiorari be issued to the Honorable John C. Lanham, Judge, Circuit Court, State of Hawaii, to enjoin him, his alternate or substitute, from proceeding any further in the Order for a New Trial, dated October 25, 1977, in Civil No. 47984, in the Circuit Court of the First Circuit, State of Hawaii, until judgment has been pronounced on the regularity of his proceedings.

OPINIONS BELOW

The opinions below were as follows:

1. Judgment ordered and entered in favor of Petitioner, in the sum of $31,500 together with costs, in Civil

No. 47984, in the Circuit Court of the First Circuit, State of Hawaii. (Appendix A-3, and A-4).

2. Order granting new trial on issue of damages only. (Appendix A-22).
3. Order denying petition for writ of certiorari. Petition filed prior to order for new trial on damages only, No. 6762, in the Supreme Court of the State of Hawaii. Appendix, B-3.
4. Denial of petition for writ of certiorari No. 6809, in the Supreme Court of the State of Hawaii, which petition was filed after order for new trial on damages only. Appendix, B-4.
5. Appeal on Civil No. 47984, First Circuit Court, State of Hawaii, dismissed; No. 6858, in the Supreme Court of the State of Hawaii. Appendix, B-5.

JURISDICTION

Having exhausted all available recourse and remedies, Petitioner now seeks the original jurisdiction of the Court, under 28 U.S.C. Sec. 1651(a) to resolve the grave issues concerning the violation of the Seventh Amendment, the laches and ploy in evidence, which, if allowed to go unchallenged, will make a mockery of our judiciary system, through the blatant denial of justice by a willful subversion of the judicial processes.

Where the Supreme Court of the State of Hawaii is caught in a quandary between its Rules and the laws of the State of Hawaii, jurisdiction of this Court must be invoked, as the only means of resolving the legal enigma.

STATUTES, LAWS AND RULES INVOLVED.

The following Statutes, Laws and Rules are involved in the consideration of this case:

1. Hawaii Revised Statutes, 1968, pages 619, 620.
2. Act 90, Session Laws of Hawaii, 1972, pages 355, 356.
3. Hawaii Rules of Civil Procedures, As Amended May 15, 1972, Effective July 1, 1972.

QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether the Constitutional guarantee of a trial by jury prohibits, inter alia, any circumvention of a jury's verdict.
2. Whether there has been circumvention, by the ignoring and the bypassing of a jury's verdict, which has been duly entered as a judgment of the court, and which has not been duly vacated or amended.
3. Whether there has been circumvention, by having ex parte consideration of a decision for a new trial.
4. Whether there has been circumvention, by the failure to grant a continuance or a disqualification when the court's impartiality has been impaired.
5. Whether there has been circumvention, by granting a motion for a new trial, which is, in fact, an amended judgment beyond 10 days.
6. Whether there has been circumvention by granting a motion which contains an allegation, the acceptance of which would deny the right of self representation.
7. Whether a new trial on the issue of damages could be granted even where there is a sufficiency of evidence to justify the judgment awarded based upon the jury's verdict.
8. Whether the Supreme Court of the State of Hawaii is with or without powers to consider certiorari.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

This case seeks an affirmation of the Seventh Amendment of our Constitution, relating to the guarantee of the right to a trial by jury.

The facts of the case submitted herewith present a patently evidential case of a conspiratorial effort, willfully and wittingly executed, to bypass and ignore the jury's verdict which was returned and entered in favor of petitioner. And thus denying him thereby, his rights under the Seventh Amendment.

The case involves an accident in which Petitioner's right wrist was permanently injured by Defendants' swinging door. A chronology of the post trial events, the basis of this cause of action, is as follows:

1. July 27, 1977 at 11:15 a.m.
A twelve member jury returned a unanimous special verdict in favor of petitioner, awarding $45,000.00 in general damages, but assessing him 30% for contributory negligence. (Appendix A-1, A-2).
2. July 29, 1977 at 10:36 a.m.
Judgment in favor of petitioner for $31,500 together with costs was ordered to be entered. (Appendix A-3).
3. July 29, 1977 at 10:40 a.m.
Notice given of entry of judgment. (Appendix A-4).
4. Aug. 5, 1977
Motion for new trial by defendants. (Appendix A-5, A-6).
5. Aug. 5, 1977
Hearing on Motion set for Friday, 26th day of August, 1977 at 8:30 a.m. (Appendix A-7).
6. Aug. 22, 1977 at 3:50 p.m.
Memorandum by petitioner in opposition to Motion for New Trial. (Appendix A-8).
7. Aug. 26, 1977
Hearing on Motion for New Trial was held as scheduled. No decision was rendered. Both parties were asked to file written memorandum in ten days.
8. Sept. 2, 1977 at 1:01 p.m.
Memorandum filed by Petitioner. (Appendix A-9).
9. Sept. 6, 1977
Memorandum filed by defendants. (Appendix A-10).
10. Sept. 22, 1977
Defendants take deposition. (Appendix A-11, A-12).
11. Oct. 3, 1977
Communication to petitioner from defendants' counsel, submitting Order Granting Defendants' Motion for New Trial for approval. (Appendix A-13, A-14).
12. Oct. 7, 1977
Petitioner's letter, returning instrument unsigned, stating objections. (Appendix A-15).
13. Oct. 13, 1977
Copy of letter to Judge Lanham, from defendants' counsel, asking for his signature to Order, "according to the decision on the Motion for New Trial rendered

- August 26, 1977*"; which was contrary and in contradiction to Item 7 above. (Exhibit A-16).
14. Oct. 14, 1977
Call from Judge Lanham's Office, setting Oct. 20th, Thursday, at 4:00 p.m., for hearing re: petitioner's letter of Oct. 7, 1977.
(See memo of petitioner's wife, A-17).
 15. Oct. 19, 1977 at 4:21 p.m.
Petitioner filed Motion for Leave to File Petition for Writ of Certiorari, in the Supreme Court of the State of Hawaii, No. 6762. (Appendix B-1).
 16. Oct. 19, 1977 at 4:24 p.m.
Petitioner's request for a continuance of hearing scheduled for October 20, 1977 at 4:00 p.m. was received by Judge Lanham's office. (Appendix A-18).
 17. Oct. 20, 1977 at 8:54 a.m.
Petitioner's Petition for Writ of Certiorari was accepted for filing by Clerk of the Supreme Court of the State of Hawaii. (Appendix B-2).
 18. Oct. 20, 1977 at 9:35 a.m.
Judge Lanham's office acknowledge receipt of copy of Au vs. Lanham, Petition for Writ of Certiorari, Supreme Court of the State of Hawaii. No. 6762. (Appendix A-19).
 19. Oct. 20, 1977 at 9:50 a.m.
Petitioner's request for continuance denied. Hearing scheduled for 4:00 p.m. today will go on as scheduled. (See memo of petitioner's wife, A-20).
 20. Oct. 20, 1977 at 10 a.m.
Attorney for Financial Plaza of the Pacific, defendants, acknowledged receipt of copy of Petition for Writ of Certiorari. (Appendix A-21).
 21. Oct. 20, 1977 at 4:30 p.m.
The scheduled hearing was held. However, the subject of petitioner's letter of Oct. 7, 1977 was not discussed at all. (See item 13 above.) Instead, the trial judge took the occasion to render his decision on the motion for a new trial.
 22. Oct. 25, 1977
Order granting defendants' motion for new trial was entered on the issue of damages only. (Appendix A-22).

23. Oct. 26, 1977 at 8:14 a.m.
The above Order was filed with the Clerk of the First Circuit Court, State of Hawaii. (Appendix A-22).
24. November 4, 1977
Petition for Writ of Certiorari, No. 6762, was denied by the Supreme Court of the State of Hawaii. (Appendix B-3).
25. December 5, 1977
Petition for Writ of Certiorari, No. 6809, filed November 22, 1977, was denied by the Supreme Court of the State of Hawaii. (Appendix B-4).
26. October 6, 1978
Appeal from the Order Granting Defendants' Motion for a New Trial, filed October 26, 1977, No. 6858 was denied by the Supreme Court of the State of Hawaii. (Appendix B-5).

SUMMARY ARGUMENT

A jury's verdict which has been duly ordered and entered as the judgment of the court may be vacated or amended for cause, but cannot be circumvented by willful acts of subversion or of omission.

The grant of a new trial cannot be used to controvert the sufficiency and adequacy of evidence which can justify the amount of damages awarded as a result of the jury's verdict based on its findings.

ARGUMENTS

- A. There are six arguments why the order granting the motion for a new trial is null and void. They are as follows:

I.

FINAL JUDGMENT NOT VACATED OR AMENDED

The Order Granting Defendants' Motion for New Trial (Appendix A-22) contains no stipulation for the vacating or amending of the final judgment entered in favor of Petitioner for the sum of Thirty-One Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($31,500.), together with costs. (Appendix A-3, A-4).

As the record stands we have the paradox of a final judgment being virtually ignored, bypassed and superseded by a motion.

Conceivably, the accepted status of a final judgment where issues are deemed to have been decided and conclusions to have been made, should prevail over the status of a "Motion" where there are mere allegations, yet to be proven.

Notwithstanding the pressure exerted by defendants, the trial court could not see its way clear to repudiate the judgment previously entered for petitioner by vacating, and thus setting aside the jury's verdict in its entirety. To express its reservations, the trial court qualified its order by stating "that a new trial in the above entitled case shall be had only on the issue of damages there."

Therefore, it is contended that the failure to vacate the previous judgment was not an innocuous omission, but rather, an intended omission; to be substantiated by the qualification made.

It follows therefore that the resulting paradox can only be resolved by deciding which should prevail, the judgment or the motion?

We contend that a final judgment which has been entered, and which remains unvacated and unamended cannot be ignored or superseded by a contrary motion. By the guarantee of the Seventh Amendment, the results of a trial by jury cannot be cast aside and ignored so unceremoniously as yesterday's menu.

The unanimous verdict of the jury (Appendix A-1, A-2) is the basis or foundation of the judgment entered for Petitioner. (Appendix A-3, A-4). Smith v. McCool, 16 Wall. (US) 560, 21 L ed 324; Fidelity & C. Co. v. Huse & Carleton, 272 Mass 448, 172 NE 590, 72 ALR 1143.

The judgment so entered has given life and effectiveness to the jury's verdict. Ellis v. State, 100 Fla 27, 129 So 106, 69 ALR 783.

In Jenkins v. State, 80 S. E. 688, 689, 14 Ga. App. 276, it was determined that a new trial cannot be had so long as the verdict remains unreversed. And so the judgment based on the verdict for the Petitioner must be reaffirmed.

II.

AMENDED JUDGMENT BEYOND 10 DAYS

The Motion prayed for by Defendants was for a new trial or remittitur. (Appendix A-5).

The Motion for a New Trial was for all issues as per order prepared by Defendants. (Appendix A-13, A-14).

The Order granted for a New Trial, however, limited the issue to damages only. (Appendix A-22).

The argument here is that since the Order was for a new trial limiting the issue to damages only, it was NOT a grant of Defendants' Motion, which was for a new trial on all issues.

As argued above, there was no intent of the trial court to negate or vacate the jury's verdict in its entirety.

The inevitable conclusion is that the Order of October 25, 1977 (Appendix A-22) was an Amended Judgment, affirming the jury's verdict; except for the issue of damages.

However, the Order of October 25, 1977 (Appendix A-22), as an Amended Judgment exceeded the 10 days provided by the rules, judgment having been entered July 29, 1977. (Appendix A-4). Hawaii Rules of Civil Procedures, Rule 59(d).

Furthermore, as an Amended Judgment, it is invalid because there was no basis, foundation, or cause, expressed or implied. Freid v. McGrath, 133 F2d, 355.

III.

DECISION MADE EX PARTE

Hearing on the Motion for a New Trial was on Friday, 26th of August, 1977. (Appendix A-7).

No decision was rendered as both parties were asked to file written memorandum. Petitioner complied on Sept. 2, 1977, and Defendants, on Sept. 6, 1977. (Appendix A-9, A-10).

On or about September 22, 1977, an ex parte decision was made to abort the judgment already entered in favor of Petitioner, and to grant a new trial.

This is evidenced by the notice of taking deposition filed by Defendants. (Appendix A-11, A-12).

Since judgment has already been entered, depositions can only be had with the leave of the court according to Rule 27(b), Hawaii Rules of Civil Procedures.

But citing Rule 31, Hawaii Rules of Civil Procedure which applies to ongoing cases, defendants' intent is clear that the judgment on record was to be ignored.

The ex parte Order for a New Trial (Appendix-22) made reference to the original hearing on August 26, 1977, but nothing was mentioned of the final hearing on Oct. 20, 1977, in which the trial court rendered its decision on the motion for a New Trial. And most important, no mention was made of the previously submitted Order for a new trial on all issues. (Appendix A-13 to A-16).

The argument here is that the Defendants, as the movant for the Order for a New Trial must assume the burden of making proper showing. And it is incumbent upon the court to examine the Order whether a proper showing is made.

In Stella v. Mosele et al., 19 N.E. 2d 433, 435, 299 Ill. App. 53, where the issue was the appointment of a receiver, and movant was the plaintiff, the court said:

"Where an application is made for the appointment of a receiver, it is incumbent upon the court to examine the bill to ascertain whether a proper showing is made. Any answer that might have been filed by defendant would not remedy the defect of the complaint in failing to set forth adequate ground for appointing a receiver.

"We are of the opinion that the appointment was improvidently made upon the record here presented, and therefore the order of the Superior Court is reversed."

In like manner, we argue that the Order for a New Trial was improvidently made upon the record here presented, and therefore the order should be reversed.

IV.

UNCLEAN HANDS

Defendants, in their demand letter to the judge that he sign the Order for a new trial on all issues (Appendix A-16) made a statement of an untrue fact: that a decision was rendered on August 26, 1977.

As stated above, no decision was made on that day. The decision was made on the final hearing on October 20, 1977, in which a new trial was ordered, limiting the issue to damages only.

It is patently clear that the trial court was inveigled and compromised by Defendants' demand letter (Appendix A-16) which states that the attached Order (Appendix A-14) was "per instructions from your law clerk."

Further proof that the trial court was taken in by the Defendants was the fact that Petitioner was notified on Oct. 14, 1977 (Appendix A-17) - only one day after Defendants' demand letter (Appendix A-16) dated October 13, 1977 was sent, - that a hearing will be held on October 20, 1977.

This was instantaneous service for Defendants, and the subject of the hearing to be held on October 20, 1977, was to be Petitioner's letter of October 7, 1977, stating his objections to Defendants' Order for a New Trial. (Appendix A-15).

Since Petitioner was to have been called to task, and not the Defendants, it must be construed that the trial court, wittingly or unwittingly, had made a tacit acceptance or sanction of Defendants' stance.

Whether it was a ploy or a conspiracy, we submit the argument of Unclean Hands.

"The maxim that he who comes into equity must come with clean hands necessarily gives wide range to the equity court's use of discretion in refusing to aid the unclean litigant; and accordingly, one's misconduct need not necessarily have been of such a nature as to be punishable as a crime or as to justify legal proceedings of any character, but any willful act concerning the cause of action which rightfully can be said to transgress equitable standards of conduct is sufficient cause of invocation of the maxim." Underscore supplied. 27 Am Jr 2d, 138. See also New York Football Giants Inc. v. Los Angeles Chargers Football Club, Inc. (CA 5 Miss) 291, Fd 471.

Where the trial court failed to invoke the Clean Hands doctrine, we now ask this Court to do so.

V.

IMPARTIALITY IMPAIRED

On Oct. 19, 1977 at 4:21 p.m. Petitioner had filed a Motion For Leave to File Petition for Writ of Certiorari, in the Supreme Court of the State of Hawaii. (Appendix B-1).

On Oct. 19, 1977 at 4:24 p.m. Petitioner hand delivered a written request to the Trial Court, seeking a continuance of the hearing scheduled for Thursday, October 20, 1977 at 4:00 p.m. (Appendix A-18).

On Oct. 20, 1977 at 8:54 a.m. the Petition for Writ of Certiorari was filed by the Supreme Court Clerk. (Appendix B-2).

On Oct. 20, 1977 at 9:35 a.m. a copy of the Petition for Writ of Certiorari, as filed was acknowledged by Trial Court's clerk. (Appendix A-19).

On Oct. 20, 1977 at 9:50 a.m. Judge Lanham's Office called that the hearing would be as scheduled. And thus denying the request for a continuance. (Appendix A-20).

As indicated above, it was to be a hearing on Petitioner's letter to Defendants, stating reasons for not approving the latter's Order for a New Trial on all issues. (Appendix A-17).

The hearing on Oct. 20, 1977 was conducted as scheduled. However, the matter taken up was not as scheduled.

The Trial Judge took the occasion to remedy a very fatal omission. He made a decision on the Motion for a New Trial, a decision previously represented by Defendants to have been made on August 26, 1977. (Appendix A-16). And thus he made a "cover-up" for Defendants and frustrated any move for his disqualification by Petitioner.

In Dakan v. Superior Court, 2 Ca. App. 52, 82P. 1129 on the subject of disqualification, it was remarked:

"The judge should not only be honest and impartial, but his acts and conduct should be such that there can be no foundation for questioning his motives."

Understandably he has the right and duty to proceed with the case if there are no disqualifying factors.

Continuing with the above quotation:

"On the other hand, where the facts are honestly stated, and when so stated they point to a certain condition that would absolutely influence men in the business transactions of life, and when applied to the particular case would lead a reasonable person to hesitate as to whether or not the judge could, under the circumstances, considering the weaknesses of human nature, entirely ignore such facts, there should be no hesitation in calling in another judge, so that the fountain head of justice should be above suspicion."

The argument here is that when the judge became an adversary of the Petitioner, in an action before the Supreme Court of the State of Hawaii, he should at least have granted a continuance. The better part of valor would be to have disqualified himself.

The Order of the trial court for a new trial (Appendix A-22) made under the circumstances of impaired impartiality should therefore be declared null and void.

VI.

ILLEGAL ALLEGATION

In their Motion for a New Trial, Defendants' 5th allegation was that their rights were substantially prejudiced by Petitioner appearing as his own counsel. (Appendix A-6).

In granting Defendants' Motion (Appendix A-22) without specifying the reasons therefor, the Trial Court has accepted the motion in its entirety — without exceptions or qualifications.

Therefore, the illegality of one assignment of prejudicial error will render the entire motion null and void. And likewise the Order granting it. For the motion must stand on all its allegations and assignments of errors, without severability.

In Freid v. McGrath, 133 F2d, 355, it was stated: "When the new trial is granted upon motion of a party, the grounds appear in the motion, as the reasons assigned by the movant in compliance with the requirements of Rule 599a."

Admittedly, if the Trial Court had chosen to make it an Amended Judgment, he may choose and pick the basis for his decision or judgment. And may, by so doing, possibly even to avoid that which is illegal.

Therefore the Order of October 25, 1977, (Appendix A-22) is illegal because it was a grant of a motion which contains an illegal allegation, the acceptance of which would necessarily mean the denial of Petitioner's right of self-representation.

In Osborn v. Bank of United States, 9 Wheat (US) 738, 6 L ed 206, 34d paragraph, Chief Justice Marshall, in delivering the opinion of the Court, stated: "Natural persons may appear in court, either by themselves or by their attorney."

B. The evidence at the trial is sufficient to justify the judgment awarded as a result of the jury's verdict based on its findings and conclusions. Therefore, no new trial is warranted.

On page 6, of the Record on Appeal, submitted to the Supreme Court of the State of Hawaii, we find in evidence, photostatic copies of the front page, where the total income is shown, of Petitioner's Tax Returns for the years 1974, 1975, and 1976. (Appendix A-23, A-24, A-25).

An examination of these copies (Appendix A-26, A-27, A-28) will show that Petitioner's income for the year 1974, or the year of the accident to be $34,000.00. In 1975 it dropped $6,000.00 to $28,000.00. In 1976, it dropped $11,000.00 to $23,000.00. Thus, there is in evidence that from the year of the accident, 1974 to 1976. Petitioner had already sustained a drop of income of $17,000.00. For 1977, the drop was another $12,000.00. Projecting to 1984, Petitioner's retirement at 65 yrs., or another seven years at $10,000.00 per year, we will have $70,000.00; which added to the $12,000.00 for 1977, and the $17,000.00 for 1975-76, we will have a total of $99,000.00. Therefore the jury's determination of total damages $45,000.00 cannot be construed as excessive in consideration of the evidence. (Appendix A-1).

In Vasconcellos v. Juarez, 37 Haw 364, 365-66, the Supreme Court of the State of Hawaii, held on the matter of exceptions to the jury awarded damages as being excessive in amount, as follows: On page 365:

"The power of this court to disturb a verdict on the ground of excessive damages is one which should be exercised with great caution and discretion, the duty of guarding against excessive verdicts necessarily resting to a large extent with the trial judge and a reviewing court giving great weight to the trial judge's approval of the verdict. Consequently it ordinarily will not do so where, as here, the trial judge has tacitly approved the verdict as not being excessive and no charge is made of abuse of judicial discretion."

We submit that the trial judge has entered his judgment based on the jury's verdict (Appendix A-3). And that he has not amended that judgment within the ten days permitted by the rules.

Furthermore, the use of Net Income returns to indicate economic loss in the assessment of damages was the theory of the case advanced by Defendants, who deposed Petitioner for the same information.

However, it remains for Petitioner to introduce them in evidence, over Defendants' objections, because it did not help the latter's cause.

In Vasconcellos v. Juarez, supra, it was determined that: "An appellant who acquiesced and participated in theory of trial on issue of damages will not be heard on appeal to complain for the first time."

C. Petitioner's failure to secure relief from the Supreme Court of the State of Hawaii can be attributed to the following:

1. The Extraordinary Legal Remedies, Part III. Certiorari, of the Hawaii Revised Statutes, 1968, 619, 620 was deleted by Act 90, Session Laws of Hawaii, 1972, 355, 356.

2. The Clerk of the Supreme Court of the State of Hawaii was most reluctant in accepting Petitioner's Motion for Leave to File Petition for a Writ of Certiorari, and the Petition for Writ of Certiorari.
3. The Motion was accepted for filing on Oct. 19, 1977 at 4:21 p.m. (Appendix B-1). However, the Petition (Appendix B-2) was not accepted for filing until the next day, October 20, 1977 at 8:54 a.m.

The acceptance of the Petition was no doubt based on the following provision of Act 90, S.L.H. 1972, 356:

"SECTION 4. The repeal or deletion of statutory provisions as to any writ shall not signify the abolition of that writ."

4. The Order of the Supreme Court of the State of Hawaii (Appendix B-3) denying the writ for insufficient grounds is understandable because at the time of the filing of the Petition, the trial judge had not shown his hand. The grounds were merely surmises based on allegations of Defendants.
5. The Order of the Supreme Court of the State of Hawaii (Appendix B-4) summarily denying the second Writ of Certiorari filed November 22, 1977, after the trial court had acted, is premised no doubt, upon the fact that the Hawaii Rules of Civil Procedure, As Amended May 15, 1972, Effective July 1, 1972, have no provisions for certiorari.

Therefore, the issue whether the Supreme Court of the State of Hawaii has powers of certiorari, or whether having the powers of certiorari, it erred in failure to exercise it, remains as a conclusion or decision which only this Court can make.

The issue is of grave importance for future cases. It is immaterial to Petitioner at this point in time, for whether it is one way or the other, it does not alter the fact that Petitioner has exhausted all legal remedies.

This case therefore, has a compelling justification for this Court to entertain original jurisdiction.

In Kanaster v. Chrysler Corp (195 F 2d, 104) the judgment of $33,283 in favor of Kanaster was vacated and the motion for a new trial was granted. Plaintiff appealed. The Court of Appeals held that the order was interlocutory and not appealable. Appeal was dismissed.

However, proceeding under writ of certiorari, (Kanaster v. Chrysler Corp (199-F2d, 610) plaintiff prevailed in that action.

The Tenth Court of Appeals, Murrah, Circuit Judge held that order for a new trial is reviewable upon a writ of certiorari and that the District Judge acted beyond his jurisdiction in granting a new trial. Judgment on verdict reinstated.

D. Unnecessary delay results in undue hardship to Petitioner and favors Defendants.

Any protracted, unnecessary and prolonged litigation will exhaust Petitioner's fast dwindling finances and thus will give Defendants an unfair advantage.

Furthermore, Petitioner is fearful and apprehensive of the awesome financial power and influence of Defendants doing business as Financial Plaza of the Pacific, a combine or entity involving such financial giants as Bank of Hawaii, (Bankoh Corporation), American Savings & Loan Assn., Territorial Savings & Loan, Castle & Cooke, Inc., and Wilcox Development Co., representing themselves as a business condominium (See Defendant's for Identification, "A" (White booklet) "Financial Plaza of the Pacific Declaration of Horizontal Property Regime and By-laws of Association of Owners", Appendix A-24).

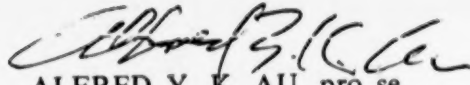

And without having to register their entity with the Department of Regulatory Agencies, State of Hawaii as a corporation, partnership or trade name. (Appendix A-29).

CONCLUSION

WHEREFOR, Petitioner prays that this Court, for the reasons stated above will issue a writ of certiorari to the Honorable John C. Lanham, Judge, First Circuit Court, State of Hawaii, his alternate or substitute.

And that upon the substantiation of the facts and allegations contained herein reaffirm the original judgment entered in favor of Petitioner, together with costs and interest, and an equal or treble amount as punitive damages, and or such other remedies as this Court deems proper and appropriate.

MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL, OR, IN THE ALTERNATIVE, MOTION FOR REMITTITUR

Come now defendants and pursuant to Rule 59,
Hawaii Rules of Civil Procedure, hereby move this court to set aside the verdict of the jury returned herein on July 27, 1977 and to grant a new trial or, in the alternative, to order a remittitur on the following grounds:

1. The verdict is contrary to the evidence in this case.
2. The evidence in this case is totally insufficient to show any liability on the part of the defendants, and there is no evidence to sustain the verdict of the jury herein.
3. The evidence considered in the most favorable a verdict of $45,000 general damages that the jury rendered against the defendants herein.

4. The verdict of the jury herein is excessive and appears to have been given under the influence of passion and prejudice.

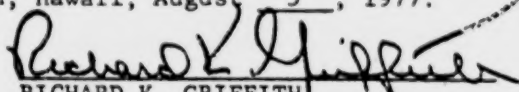

5. Defendants' rights were substantially prejudiced in that plaintiff, appearing as his own counsel, in his closing argument improperly appealed to the sympathy and prejudice of the jury by stating that he was the sole provider for his family and several relatives, and that he would have difficulty making tuition payments for his sons at the Punahou School due to the accident herein.

6. Defendants' rights were substantially prejudiced by plaintiff's frequent reference, over objections, to his inability to identify defendants as proper parties thereby improperly appealing to the sympathy and prejudice of the jury.

7. In response to a jury question, the court erred in instructing the jury, over defendants' objection, that if the jury found plaintiff to be fifty percent (50%) negligent, he would receive nothing by way of damages and the court would enter judgment for the defendants.

This motion is based upon the records and proceedings in this action.

Dear Mr. Griffith: Re: Au v. Kelly, et al, Civil No. 47984

I am returning the instrument which you have prepared for my approval unsigned for the following reasons:

1. The judgment of the Court on the motion heard on Aug. 26, 1977 has not been returned. I had expected a written decision.

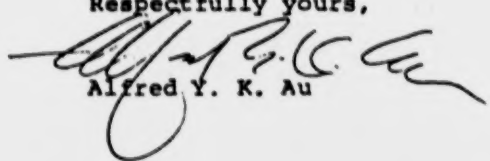

2. Particularly if it is adverse, I would like to have the legal cause or basis for vacating the jury's verdict clearly delineated in order to enable me to perfect my appeal to the Supreme Court.

3. If your submission of the instrument in question for my approval is with the prior knowledge, approval or consent of the Judge, I would like to lodge my most vehement protest of such unilateral action without my knowledge and participation, intended to prejudice my cause.

4. I would like to register a complaint to your post-trial deposition of October 5, 1977. I have not seen an order of the Court permitting it.

5. Your motion for the setting of a new trial is most premature and presumptuous at this point in time.

Respectfully yours,
